Y. M. C. A.—Sunday Prayer Meeting in the 1st Presbyterian Church. The attention of the members of this Association is called to the following changes in the time of holding the meetings: Alms House at 2 o'clock; Canal Basin at 4 o'clock; Singing Meeting at 5:15; Open Air Meetings at 6. The members generally are also reminded that the Association has been divided into two divisions for open air work—the first division of which, including those whose names in the alphabet are found between A and M inclusive, have been assigned for duty next Sabbath at the Washington & Ohio R. R. depot, and the second division, including the remaining members of the Association, has been assigned for duty at the O. A. & M. R. R. depot, at 6 o'clock. The attention of the members is specially called to the preliminary meeting for singing, at the room, at 5:15 p. m. As it is proposed to hold special services upon the following Sabbath, it is essential that the members should attend to make proper preparation for them.

RELIEF HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY.—A regular monthly meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company was held in their truck house last night, G. E. Entwistle, Vice-President, in the chair, and A. A. Warfield, secretary. The recorder reported one fire, that on the east side of south Washington street, between Gibson and Franklin streets, since last meeting. It was resolved that all members be notified to be ready to go out at a moment's notice, and that the members be transferred to the honorary roll; also that the funds of the company be reported in the Farmers' and Mechanics' Savings Bank; also that a committee, consisting of James Green and R. M. Latham, be appointed to examine into the expediency of building a chimney to the truck house; also that the foreman be empowered to ask the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department and the Fire Wardens for a new set of fire axes with picks attached. A motion was made that the company apply to Judge Lowe for a charter, but it was lost.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.—Thomas Downey, jr., one of a party of young men charged with trespassing upon the grounds of Mrs. B. C. Mason, and using improper language to the servant left in charge there, was fined and discharged.

A man named Cahoe, hailing from Fairfax, for disorderly conduct in the market square, was locked up in the station house.

J. A. Nightingall, a readyman on the police force, for being intoxicated, was suspended for ten days. In the examination of this case, upon the invitation of the Mayor, C. G. H. Markell, the President of the Police Board, assisted.

The case of Justus Schneider, for violating the Sunday law, was continued.

Coney & Bro., for violating the Sunday law, had a fine assessed against them, failing to pay which an execution was ordered on sufficient quantity of their goods to satisfy the fine. The amount, but this was stayed by a forthcoming bond.

NIGHT REPORT.—Night warm and clear till about three o'clock, when it became cloudy. There were no disturbances and only one prisoner in the station house.

PROPERTY SALES.—Green & Wise, Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers, sold to-day, at public auction, 50 acres of land situated in Alexandria county, Va., and a part of the Summer Hill tract, to Jas. M. Stewart for $900.

The brick house and lot on the south side of King, between Alfred and Patrick streets, belonging to the estate of the late Harrison Bradley, was sold to-day by E. A. Kirby, auctioneer, to Wm. Cowling, for $1,500. Also by the same, the frame house and lot on the west side of Columbus st. between Montgomery and 1st streets, to John McFarland for $405; also a lot in rear of the above to John A. Seaton for $50; also a lot adjoining the above to J. Marvill for $50; also a lot on Alfred street in rear of above to J. A. Seaton for $62.

MUR'S HALL.—It was announced some days ago that another story was to be added to the building known as Mur's Hall, and that for that purpose the roof of that building had been moved, but the work has been suspended. Superintendent of Police Clifford having been informed that the east wall of that building was in an unsafe condition had it inspected by Messrs. Joseph Hopkins, John Lambdin, W. H. McKnight and Elihu Stanton, who reported that his information was correct, and that the unsafe wall ought to be pulled down.

CORPORATION COURT.—The September term of the Corporation Court, Judge E. M. Lowe to preside, will commence on Monday next. The only criminal case set for the term is that of William Williams, colored, charged with an assault and battery upon B. R. Cline, jailor, but as no jurors have been summoned, it will be continued, and the term be a short one, and be taken up with motions and chancery causes.

THE MARKET.—The market, this morning, presented a rich and beautiful display of everything that is now good to eat. Prices, too, considering those of the other necessities of life, were not exorbitant. The wagons on Royal street extended from Cameron to Prince streets, and there was a large attendance of both sellers and buyers.

CIRCUITS.—The far-famed old John Robinson's Circus and Menagerie, will arrive from Washington on Monday next and exhibit here on that day. For the accommodation of persons living along the line of the railroads terminating here, who may desire to witness it, round trip tickets will be issued that day at one fare.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—A large and exceedingly interesting meeting of Belle Haven Lodge, No. 24, Good Templars, was held last night, at which there were present visiting members from Welcome Lodge of the order of this city, and from Providence Lodge of Fairfax Court House.

HENRY WILDT. [Lately with W. W. Adam.] Has opened a WATCH and JEWELRY ESTABLISHMENT, at No. 10 North Royal street, next door to W. J. Calm's. Special attention will be paid to repairing Watches, Jewelry and Clocks. Cheap, quick and good work guaranteed. aug 15-1m Local Brevities.

An excursion party is to leave Staunton for Washington on the 19th.

A colored man who jumped off the 1:50 train from Washington as it passed Porter's Brewery, this evening, fell and was badly hurt.

Dr. Garrett says the case of small-pox reported here a day or two ago turns out to be one of chronic cutaneous eruption.

Connection was made with the through train from the north this morning, but the arrival of that train was forty minutes behind time.

J. L. King, one of the Directors of the Washington and Ohio Railroad, died in New York last night.

Regular religious services will be commenced in the Wharf Mission Chapel next Wednesday night.

A heavy fog prevailed on the river early this morning, and for an hour or two rendered navigation somewhat difficult.

Some of the country market people found fault this morning with a huckster who had taken a position on Royal street usually occupied by them.

While Messrs. Frank Creighton and Willie Kizner were gunning in the marshes north of the city, yesterday evening, the latter shot and killed a young bald eagle.

Oysters are beginning to arrive freely and are said to be in pretty good condition. Mr. Jas. McLean opened his packing establishment this morning, and filled a large order for Staunton.

A commission house of this city one day this week made a sale of 1,000 barrels of one brand of flour, said to be the largest sale of a single brand made here since the war.

The weather has again turned very warm, and yesterday and to-day the heat has been very oppressive. The thermometer stood in the shade, to-day, at 88°.

Among the passengers on the steamer Lady of the Lake, which arrived from Norfolk this morning, was one of the young ladies who were lately reported to have been drowned near Pacey Point.

The Gypsies, who for some days past have been encamped on the side of the turnpike between here and Washington, folded their tents this morning and passed through this city on their way south.

Capt. Charles Williams and a friend, while riding in the captain's buggy, on Cameron street, near the Market square, last evening, were thrown out by the sudden shifting of the horse, but fortunately neither was hurt.

Mr. Charles Carson, son of the late Captain George Carson, died suddenly at the residence of his uncle, Mr. Manley, in the 1st Ward, this morning. He had been sick from consumption for some time past, but his death was quite unexpected.

The ladies interested in the Wharf Mission Chapel have made arrangements for an exhibition of Mrs. Jarley's wax works, in this city, sometime towards the close of the current month, the proceeds of which are to be appropriated to the benefit of that chapel.

Mr. J. O. Kirby, who lives in Fairfax county, just below this city, found yesterday in one of his fields a cow that had evidently been driven there, killed and skinned, for the money the hide would bring. About two years ago two valuable horses were stolen and killed just north of the city for the value of their hides.

A race will be run on Wednesday next from Washington to Fort Washington and return by the yacht John T. Given and Fannie Bell. The last named yacht was the victor in the last regatta, and was sailed by Capt. George Laycock, and an Alexandrian has bet $200 that she will win the race on Wednesday.

A NEW BRAND.—Mr. R. M. Lawson, Cameron street, Alexandria, Va., has taken the agency of a brand of Whiskey called "B-S-E-L-E-C-T." It is a superior article, and is sold at a very moderate price. Dr. J. B. McCaw, late Professor of Chemistry, Medical College of Virginia, has analyzed it, and pronounces it perfectly pure, and recommends its use for family and medicinal purposes. We advise our patrons to try it, as we can vouch for its superior quality.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

From New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—It is stated that the Cuban privateer Pioneer will be sold at auction on the 10th instant.

The American Bible Society at its weekly meeting recognized two new auxiliary societies in North Carolina, one in Iowa, and one in Michigan.

At a meeting of the workmen's union, last night, the typographical union of this city withdrew from it on account of the passage of a rule requiring all the members to pay twenty-five cents per week when strikes are in progress.

Pathe Burke is much better. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has been fined $2,500, in Trenton, for blocking a street.

A little daughter of Gen. Albert Vele was kidnapped by four ruffians at Lake Mahopah, Thursday, and hurried away. The affair remains a mystery.

The Bar Association is reported to have held a meeting last evening to secure beyond a peradventure the disqualification of Barnard, and to checkmate any move for restoring Cardozo to the bench.

The Indians.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 6.—General Morrow telegraphs Superintendent Dodge from Spring City that a number of Indian Chiefs and their people have agreed to meet him in council. He says: "I have reason to hope that my campaign will result in driving out the hostile Indians and giving peace to this sorely distressed valley." The Indian agent represents to General Morrow that if the Indians will surrender the stolen property and go upon the Uintah reservation will subsidize them for a year.

It is asserted positively by persons who claim to have seen it that a certain person in this territory has a lariar, or rope used in tethering horses, made from the hair of women slaughtered at Mountain Meadows. An effort will be made by the citizens to get possession of it.

The Striking Mania.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—London advices show that the striking mania pervades all England. The chair makers of Weymouth, coal men of Lowestoft, silkweavers of Sudbury, stone masons of Preston, engineers of Birkenhead, china and earthenware manufacturers of Staffordshire, and the bakers of Dublin, are all on a strike.

The London carpenters, painters, brick layers, bakers and cabinet makers continue their strike.

The Postoffice employees have petitioned for an advance of wages.

The journeyman butchers of London have formed a union for the purpose of getting higher wages.

Death of a Member of Congress.

HARTFORD, Sept. 7.—The Hon. Julius I. Strong, member of Congress from this district, died very suddenly this morning of cerebro spinal meningitis. He was apparently in perfect health day before yesterday and first complained of being ill Thursday night.

schoeppe not Guilty.

CARLEISLE, Sept. 7.—The jury in the case of Dr. Schoeppe, on second trial for poisoning Miss Steinbecke of Baltimore, returned a verdict, after being absent fifteen minutes, of not guilty and the defendant was promptly liberated by order of the court.

The "Straight-ones" Again.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—The Straight-out Democratic Committee have called a State Convention to meet in Representative Hall Harrisburg, on Tuesday the 24th instant at noon to select an electoral ticket.

Jefferson's Eyes.

MARRIED.

On Thursday morning, September 5th, at the residence of the bridegroom, by Rev. John L. Pascoe, Rev. David TESSIE, of the Presbyterian Church, to Miss MAGGIE O. PASCOE, all of Amherst county, Va.

OBITUARY.

Departed this life, on the 28th of August, 1872, at Preston, her residence, in Alexandria county, Virginia, Miss MARY M. SWANN, for many years a true and devoted Christian.

Her amiable disposition, the purity of her mind, which showed in every expression and sentiment, and the strict performance of all the duties of life which devolved upon her, endeared her to all with whom she came in contact.

Always cheerful and happy, she diffused life and animation throughout the family circle. Her faith was strong and steadfast, which she brought in daily exercise, referring all her affairs, both temporal and eternal, to the will of God; and in all the trials and vicissitudes of life made it her refuge and support.

As her life was pure and holy, so her death was peaceful and happy. The Sunday preceding her death she received the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and at the minister took leave she said, "I have not a doubt, or a fear." A friend approached. She said: "See, there are no tears in my eyes. It is because there is peace within—peace, peace, peace. I have not a doubt or a fear. I do not even fear the grave. I want to go to it with joy, joyful and waving her hand above, oh! I want to go!" During an interval of repose she said: "I thought I heard some one singing a beautiful hymn—and some hours after she calmly and gently, apparently without suffering and without a groan, yielded her soul to her Father in heaven.
